Name New Camp Commander

Major General Clarence C. Schnipke, Adjutant General and Director, Department of Military Affairs for the State of Michigan announced today the appointment of Major Edmund Rutkowski to the position of Camp Commander at Camp Grayling, effective June 1st.

b. Storage, accountability, maintenance and use of state and federal equipment, impedimenta, motor vehicles, and supplies not issued to organizations.

c. Control and supervision of all training and administrative facilities.

Crawford County Recreational Activities

Canoeing Trails of Crawford County are a must for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts. All rivers, the Manistee, Main Stream AuSable, South Branch, AuSable, are normal and clear. Spring foliage is out and wild flowers are making their appearance. There is excellent opportunity to observe birdlife and wildlife along the Canoeing Trails of our county.

Major daytime fishing activity on Quality Trout Fishing sections has moved to the South Branch AuSable and North Branch AuSable. Good catches are being taken on these streams. Early morning activity on Main Stream AuSable has been good with Nymphs and Skunks being flies to use. With warm, late afternoons and evenings, stone fly hatches should be coming on strong for the next couple of weeks.

Trout fishing on area lakes is still good. Spin-casters and bait fishermen have been doing well on East Branch AuSable and Upper Manistee River and on small feeder streams.

KEEP OUR REGION FREE OF LITTER.

Further Information On The Food Stamp Program In Crawford County

Following last week's story concerning the food stamp program for Crawford County, this week's article explains how to take part in the program and other pertinent information.

How To Take Part In The Food Stamp Program

Here is the step-by-step procedure to be followed in order to receive the increased food purchasing power offered by the Food Stamp program.

If you think you may be eligible, and if you are not now receiving public assistance, get together a few papers you'll need and visit the local welfare agency to be certified. You'll need proof of residence in the project area. This proof consists of such things as rent receipts, home payments, tax bills, drivers license, etc.

Be sure also that your residence has cooking facilities available to you, for only households are eligible under the program.

similar records, or statements from your employer.

The only other qualification for eligibility is that you do not have cash, bonds, savings or securities in excess of $750 in the case of a single person, and $1000 in a two or more person family.

With all of your papers and documents in order, you can be certified rapidly and courteously at the local welfare office which is headed by Mr. Donald Burkett.

After certifying you as eligible, the workers in Mr. Burkett's office will look at your family size and income and determine how much you will be required to pay toward your food coupons.

This, of course, is the key to the food assistance program that you continue to spend about the same amount for food. But you turn that that money into food stamp coupons, receiving added value representing increased food for you and your family.

As already indicated,

Sylvia Ann Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Douglas, will receive her diploma from St. Mary High School, Grayling, at Commencement there on Sunday, June 4th.

On May 28th, at the annual Honors and Awards Convocation, Sylvia was inducted into the National Honor Society. During her four years at St. Mary's, Sylvia also served as a class officer, was awarded N. E. D. T. certificates in both the ninth and tenth grades, served two years on the Student Council, was an officer in the Pep Club, a member of the Junior Prom Committee, and this year was associate editor of the Yearbook.

Having qualified on the State of Michigan Competitive Scholarship test, Sylvia has been awarded a scholarship and has also qualified for a Tuition Grant, which she will use this fall at Mercy College of Detroit. She will be working for a degree in sociology, as she plans a degree in sociology, as she plans

Social Security Benefits In Crawford County Up 6 Per Cent

$6883 at the end of December. 80 disabled workers and dependents were receiving benefits at a monthly rate of $6,215.

"Practically every young family in Crawford County has survivors protection under social security that can be worth $75,000 or more, and equally valuable disability insurance protection.

The average worker, he said, can expect to collect more than the value of his social security tax contributions just in the benefits payable to him and his wife in retirement. If he does not live to retirement, his family stands to collect far more than the contributions he has paid, and the same will be true if he should become totally disabled for work before 65.

Monthly payments to the family of a worker who dies, leaving two or more children, can range from $66 to $368 a month, depending on the worker's average earnings under social security.

Social security survivors benefits, Wiles said, can be paid to the family of a young man who has worked and paid social security contributions for as little as a year and a half during the three years before his death.

Benefits to the mother and children continue until the youngest child reaches 18, or indefinitely, if the child has a disability which began before his 18th birthday and makes it impossible for him to work and become self-supporting.

Under a change in the law enacted in 1965, a child's benefits can be continued until age 22 if he or she continues in school.

Under the schedule of taxes in the present, social security law even the group of young workers who will start work in 1974, after the maximum tax rates for old-age, survivors, and disability insurance go into effect, will pay only about 80 to 85 per cent of the value of their potential benefits.

The matching contributions paid by their employers will account for the other 15 to 20 per cent.

Over a working lifetime of 45 years, ending with his retirement at 65 in the year 2019, a young worker who earned the top amount covered by social security in every year would contribute a total of $10,318 toward his retirement protection.

Adding interest, compounded at 3 3/4 per cent, the value of the worker's contributions at age 65 would be $26,412. The value of the benefits payable to him and his wife in retirement, assuming average life expectancy, would be $32,853, 20 per cent more than the value of his total social security contributions.

"These calculations," Wiles said, "are based on an assumption that the law will not be changed at all during the young worker's lifetime. It can be expected there will continue to be changes in the law to improve benefits — as there have been in the past."

"As pointed out in testimony before the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives in hearings on changes in the law now being considered, the financing of the social security system allows for increases in the benefit level as earnings rise in the future without any change in the contribution rates."

Speed 240 Miles Per Hour

By Willard Bosserman
Co. Ext. Natural Resource Agent

What travels at 240 miles per hour? The blade tip of a 20-inch power-law mower, says Willard Bosserman, County Extension Natural Resource Agent.

When a blade hits a rock or a piece of wire at this speed, it can throw it a great distance with terrific force. It is easy to understand how accidents can happen unless operators take precautions, the agent explained.

"Whether you have a new mower or an old one, start the season right. Read and reread your operator's manual and check every part of the equipment to see that it is in repair," the agent advised.

Crawford County Avalanche

Thursday, June 1, 1967

He added: "Keep the blades sharp. Regulate the blade height and blade speed. Both are important. Be sure all shields are in place on the throwing trash."

Operators should clean the lawn of all objects large and small, before starting to mow. "Make it the rule—and enforce it—to keep children off the lawn and out of the area while mower is in operation," the agent concluded.

Fond Farewell . . .

It is with highly mixed emotions that we begin to this, our final editorial, into shape. We will be most careful to lay aside the burden of responsibility that we have with the ownership, editorship and publisher's post the Crawford County Avalanche.

But after nearly 1,200 editions of the Avalanche which we have "put to bed" in the twenty-two years and ten months that we have been at the helm, we are going to miss very deeply the people that we work with at the office, also our many fine friends with which we meet and talk as we covered the beat for news stories and for advertising.

Looking back over the more than two decades, we remember, with sweet sadness the first few issues we published. They were printed on our little Pony Miehle, two page press, which is still in the back shop. Our first few issues were four pages each with a page size of seven columns by 20 inches deep. Today our normal is eight pages of an eight column, 22-inch deep size.

At the present time, our press run is nearly 2,100. It is 1,100 when we came to Grayling back in 1964. Of that run, 300 were sent to servicemen of Crawford County, serving around the world in World War II.

So in a little over twenty years, we have doubled the size and circulation of this hometown newspaper and we would predict that the new owners will accomplish the same in the next few years.

With the Avalanche beginning its 89th year of existence with 1967, it is an institution which over the years has given service to Crawford County and Grayling. Its long life proves this. The six previous editors and institutions. We hope that in some small way we have helped in the great growth of this area over the past two decades.

From the founding of the Avalanche in 1878 by Dr. C. Brown, the repeated theme found in the bound volumes of the past 88 years is one of community service. Following Dr. Brown as editor was George H. Maurer who was succeeded by J. C. Hanson. H. C. McKinley was the fourth editor followed by the illustrious Dr. Oscar Palmer, then Oscar P. Schumann and yours truly.

We would like to express our thanks to our fine employees over this period and to our splendid and steady advertisers, correspondents, subscribers and readers and to the many fine folks of Grayling and Crawford County who have helped us in, oh so, many ways over the years.

With no vacation for either my wife or myself since 1944, that will be the first order of business. After getting rested . . . well, we'll see. RWS

$144 More Per Family For Food Locally

(Special to the Avalanche)

NEW YORK — To what extent has the cost of food increased for the average Crawford County family, in the last few years? How much more are local families spending per month for the table?

Although food prices have been edging upward for a long time, increasing over 20 per cent in ten years, about half of that rise has occurred in the last three years, according to Labor Department figures. And the biggest jump in a single year, nearly six per cent, was in 1966.

Suddenly, when the nation's housewives realized how much less they were getting for a $10 bill, they rose en masse, wrote letters, to public officials, argued with storekeepers and boycotted supermarkets.

In Crawford County, the effect of the price increase over a period of two years has been to add approximately $144 a year to the food bill of the average family.

In the United States as a whole, the increase amounted to 37 per cent family and, in the State of Michigan, to 109.

The figures are estimates based upon national averages released by the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Labor.

They show that the cost of food, by the time it reached the consumer, was about 8.5 per cent higher in most communities than it was two years ago.

Just how much Crawford County residents are spending for food is indicated in the latest report from the Standard Rate and Data Service.

The total food bill in the local area amounted to some $2,541,000 last year, it reports. This was at the rate of $146 per family per month, dividing the total by the number of local households.

A similar quantity of food would have cost only $134 per month two years earlier.

As to who and what are responsible for the rise in the cost of food, there is no quick or simple answer.

Farm prices have gone up, but not enough to account for the big increase at the consumer end. Higher labor and marketing costs, vanishing surpluses of wheat and other commodities and increased demand are among the other factors cited.

The forecast for 1967, by the Department of Agriculture, is that food prices will continue to move upward, but not as sharply as they did this year.

YOUNG GIRLS BEST EMPLOYEES

By Willard Bosserman
Co. Ext. Natural Resource Agent

High school girls, ages 17-19, are best prospects for motel and restaurant owners, says Dr. Robert McIntosh, Michigan State University Extension Specialist, told a group of motel owners at Roscommon Monday, May 22. The next best people to hire for motel and restaurant work were those 55 years of age and over.

People being hired on a new job need training for that job. For the first two or three weeks they need training, supervision and understanding. He urged employers to seek the best employees available, and to pay them well.

He listed several methods of giving employees incentive to do a good job. Among the suggestions are to keep the employee informed, expressing personal interest in the employee, instilling pride in effective supervision. Dr. McIntosh also listed some bonus plans which included a cost reduction plan.

He urged motel owners to analyze their business to find out who their customers were and to gear their promotion to that particular clientele. If they were interested in developing a new market, find out what the market wants, prepare their motel to serve that market then let the market know about it.

He told the group that they must have more to sell than linen and a roof. "Use the attractions of the area to bring customers to your motel," he said.

During the last hour McIntosh demonstrated methods of determining rates and computing the break even point. He concluded that rates were not based on cost or what your neighbor charged, but on percent occupancy.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor in the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Poison Prevention A Year-Round Program

Lansing — Pharmacists throughout Michigan are participating in a public education program on poison prevention and preparedness in case of an accidental poisoning, announced Robert C. Johnson, Executive Director of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association. Reported incidents verify there are over one million home poisonings in the United States a year, of which, more than half a million are children under five years of age. Approximately 500 of these victims die.

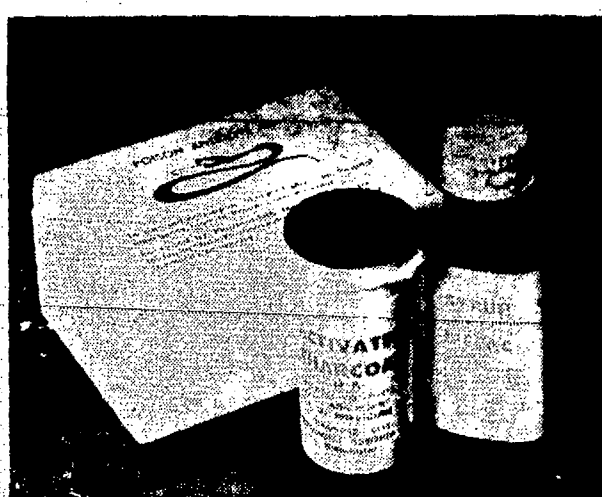

Common household substances such as aspirin, soap, detergents and bleach accounted for over 33 percent of the 1966 accidental poisonings in children.

Poison Antidote Kit

It is an undisputed fact that the immediate availability of an antidote in the home in case of an accidental poisoning could be the crucial difference between life or death. Realizing this fact, the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association initiated a Poison Antidote Kit (PAK) program in 1966 during National Poison Prevention Week. The program realized widespread acceptance as thousands of Kits have been distributed to Michigan families. Also, national recognition was afforded PAK in the form of the coveted Public Education Award presented by the American Pharmaceutical Association.

Ask Your Pharmacist

The PAK is available from participating pharmacists as a public service of the pharmaceutical profession. Parents should ask their community pharmacist for a PAK and keep it on hand for use in case of a poisoning emergency. PAK consists of a durable, easily-discernable plastic box containing two therapeutically recognized, unit-dose antidotes—Syrup of Ipecac and Activated Charcoal.

Poison Antidote Kits (PAK) are available in this area at participating pharmacies. The PAK, a sturdy plastic box, contains two recognized antidotes for use in cases of accidental poisoning. Ask your pharmacist for a PAK for your home.

It was the unanimous recommendation of the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Association of Poison Control Centers, the American Medical Association and the Medical Advisory Board of the Food and Drug Administration that Ipecac Syrup should be readily available in the household for emergency treatment of poisonings.

Syrup of Ipecac is indicated when it is desirable for the patient to vomit. In most cases, such removal of the poison from the stomach is the proper treatment. In some cases, however, for example when a gasoline product has been swallowed, vomiting should not be caused. In such cases, the other product in the PAK, Activated Charcoal, is to be administered.

Call Physician First

Before either antidote is administered to the patient, the physician or hospital poison information center should be contacted for specific instructions. The parent should have the poison container at hand when calling for instructions, since important label information may be needed. Physicians have lent their endorsement to the program through their professional societies.

The MSPA intends for this public service program to be supported by pharmacists on a year-round basis. Parents, too, should recognize the year-round aspects of poison prevention by educating their children to the hazards of poisoning and by obtaining a PAK from their community pharmacist for emergency use.

Poisonings in MY home? Impossible? Before saying it's impossible, think about how many times children have been known to accomplish the "impossible." Don't let say you're sure. Be sure, and be prepared for the impossible with a PAK in your home.

Boy Scouts Plan '68 European Trip

Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts of the Paul Bunyan Council are invited to partake of high-adventure in foreign lands summer after this one.

The Council is planning a tour of England and several points on the Continent for Scouts and Explorers of this area and invites those boys interested in such a trip during the summer of 1968 to join in the planning.

In the true tradition of Scouting, the boys interested in such a tour will aid in the actual selection of the itinerary. Paul Price, Chipewa District Executive and chairman of the arrangements for the big "hike" across the Atlantic said today.

He said a suggested list of stops includes visits with Scouts where Scouting began, the "swinging city" of London, the University of Heidelberg, colorful Venice, Paris, Luxembourg, Switzerland and the quaint principality of Liechtenstein.

The boys must be 14 or older that summer.

Cost of the trip is expected to be in the $50 - $650 range for the three-weeks, all expenses.

Part of the time they will be staying in the homes of Scouts of the country they are visiting. Trading items will be an important part of their luggage.

Poison Prevention A Year-Round Program

Lansing—Pharmacists throughout Michigan are participating in a public education program on poison prevention and preparedness in case of an accidental poisoning, announced Robert C. Johnson, Executive Director of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association. Reported incidents verify there are over one million home poisonings in the United States a year, of which, more than half a million are children under five years of age. Approximately 500 of these victims die!

Common household substances such as aspirin, soaps, detergents and bleach accounted for over 33 per cent of the 1965 accidental poisonings in children.

Poison Antidote Kit

It is an undisputed fact that the immediate availability of an antidote in the home in case of an accidental poisoning could be the crucial difference between life or death. Realizing this fact, the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association initiated a Poison Antidote Kit (PAK) program in 1966 during National Poison Prevention Week. The program realized widespread acceptance as thousands of Kits have been distributed to Michigan families. Also, national recognition was afforded PAK in the form of the coveted Public Education Award presented by the American Pharmaceutical Association.

Ask Your Pharmacist

The PAK is available from participating pharmacists as a public service of the pharmaceutical profession. Parents should ask their community pharmacist for a PAK and keep it on hand for use in case of a poisoning emergency. PAK consists of a durable, easily-discernible plastic box containing two therapeutically recognized, unit-dose antidotes—Syrup of Ipecac and Activated Charcoal.

Poison Antidote Kits (PAK) are available in this area at participating pharmacies. The PAK, a sturdy plastic box, contains two recognized antidotes for use in cases of accidental poisoning. Ask your pharmacist for a PAK for your home.

It was the unanimous recommendation of the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Association of Poison Control Centers, the American Medical Association and the Medical Advisory Board of the Food and Drug Administration that Ipecac Syrup should be readily available in the household for emergency treatment of poisonings.

Syrup of Ipecac is indicated when it is desirable for the patient to vomit. In most cases, such removal of the poison from the stomach is the proper treatment. In some cases, however, for example when a gasoline product has been swallowed, vomiting should not be caused. In such cases, the other product in the PAK, Activated Charcoal, is to be administered.

Call Physician First

Before either antidote is administered to the patient, the physician or hospital poison information center should be contacted for specific instructions. The parent should have the poison container at hand when calling for instructions, since important label information may be needed. Physicians have lent their endorsement to the program through their professional societies.

The MSPA intends for this public service program to be supported by pharmacists on a year-round basis. Parents, too, should recognize the year-round aspects of poison prevention by educating their children to the hazards of poisoning and by obtaining a PAK from their community pharmacist for emergency use.

Poisonings in MY home? Impossible? Before saying it's impossible, think about how many times children have been known to accomplish the "impossible." Don't say you're sure. Be sure. And be prepared for the impossible with a PAK in your home.

HONORED WITH SHOWER

Larry LaGrow of Charlevoix and his bride-to-be Miss Carol Lewis of East Lansing were guests of honor at a shower Sunday afternoon, May 21st given by Mr. and Mrs. John Ludeman at their home. The party took the form of a cocktail buffet with about seventy-five couples attending. Decorations were in white and red.

Out of town guests were Carol's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lewis of East Lansing and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Relyea of Mt. Clemens, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Hayes of Gaylord and their daughter and husband.

Assisting the bride-elect in opening her many lovely gifts was her sister, Mrs. Relyea, and Miss Janet LaGrow, sister of the bridegroom elect.

Boy Scouts Plan '68 European Trip

Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts of the Paul Bunyan Council are invited to partake of high adventure in foreign lands summer after this one.

The Council is planning a tour of England and several points on the Continent for Scouts and Explorers of this area and invites those boys interested in such a trip during the summer of 1968 to join in the planning.

In the true tradition of Scouting, the boys interested in such a tour will aid in the actual selection of the itinerary, Paul Price, Chippewa District Executive and chairman of the arrangements for the big "hike" across the Atlantic said today.

He said a suggested list of stops includes visits with Scouts where Scouting began, the "swinging city" of London, the University of Heidelberg, colorful Venice, Paris, Luxembourg, Switzerland and the quaint principality of Liechtenstein.

The boys must be 14 or older that summer.

Cost of the trip is expected to be in the $350 - $650 range for the three-weeks, all expenses.

Part of the time they will be staying in the homes of Scouts of the country they are visiting. Trading items will be an important part of their luggage.

The trip will classify as a "High Adventure" activity, Price said.

Miss Pamela-Eileen-Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Gibson of 406 Feninsula, Grayling, and Mr. Michael Edward Lauman, son of Mrs. Fran Lauman of Saginaw and Mr. James Lauman of Osceola, were united in marriage on Saturday, May 20, 1967 at the Michelson Memorial Methodist Church. The candlelight ceremony was performed by former pastor the Reverend R. C. Puffer of Indian River, and the Reverend Charles Kolb. Music was by Mrs. Arthur Feldhauser, her selections being "Each to the Other" and "The Wedding Prayer." White gladioli graced the altar.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of silk organza accented with Venice lace, styled with princess lines, brief sleeves and wedding ring neckline. The detachable bouffant train extended to chapel length. Her bouffant veil of English illusion was secured to a matching pillbox. She carried a cascade of marguerite daisies with accents of ivy.

Miss Deyanne Gibson was maid of honor for her sister. She was attired in a floor-length gown of jonquil yellow linen with modified A-line skirt, brief sleeves and bateau neckline. At the bodice there were accents of floral bands with velvet ribbon streamers. She wore a matching floral arrangement with her bouffant veil and carried a single long-stemmed yellow rose. Bridesmaids were the Misses Lauri Olson of Chicago, Marie Scott of Detroit, Cheryl Smock of East Lansing and Barbara Lauman, sister of the bridegroom, from Boyne Highlands, all indresses identical with the maid of honor. Bonnie Lauman, sister of the bridegroom was flower girl. P. J. McNamara served as ring bearer.

Dave Larson of Saginaw acted as best man. Groomsman were Drew Thompson and Craig Tucker of Saginaw. Ushers were William Lauman, brother of the bridegroom and Tom Rulison, both of Saginaw. Mrs. Gibson chose an azalea pink coat and dress ensemble with beige accessories. Mrs. Lauman wore a rose pink dress and jacket ensemble with petal pink accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink shaded sweetheart roses. The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs.

Ether Gibson of Howard City, wore blue with an orchid corsage.

A reception was held following the wedding in the Viking Room at Chief Shoppenagons Motor Hotel, where a buffet supper was served. After the first slice was cut by the bride and groom, Mrs. Arthur Feldhauser cut and served the wedding cake.

For the couple's going-away trip the new Mrs. Lauman chose an orange and gold silk tent dress with matching orange shoes. They spent their honeymoon week in the upper peninsula and Canada. The couple is now at home at 1921 North Woodbridge, in Saginaw.

Mrs. Lauman is a 1965 graduate of Grayling High School and received a degree as a graduate nurse from the Delta School of Nursing in May of this year. Her husband is a 1964 graduate of Arthur Hill High School in Saginaw and is now majoring in Business Administration at Delta College.

Guests for the wedding and reception were from Saginaw, Bay City, Grand Rapids, Howard City, Chicago, East Lansing.

Prenuptial parties were held for Pamela, a personal shower at the home of Miss Cheryl Smock with Marie Scott as co-hostess, and a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Larry McNamara assisted by her daughter Mary Liz, where the guests made a scrapbook to present to the bride.

Bits O' Talk

If you are the parent of a three or four-year-old and would be interested in a cooperative nursery school experience for your child, please help us to include you in our plans for this fall. It is hoped to attract at least fifteen families to form such a school. If interested please call Mrs. Harold Gazan, phone 348-9304.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Larson left Monday, May 22nd, to take Mrs. John Erkes to her home in Spring Lake. She had been a house guest of the Larsons for a week, coming to attend the banquet and degree work honoring Mrs. Olin Williamson. En route they stopped in Mt. Pleasant and visited their son, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Larson and daughter, Kristine Kay. On Tuesday they left for Holland, Mich., where they attended the Centennial Commencement exercise held at Hope College Chapel on May 24th at which time their son-in-law, Vern Essenberg, received his Masters Degree in Christian Education from Western Theological Seminary. The Essenbergs have moved to Grand Rapids where he has accepted a call from the Garfield Park-Reform Church. Their new address is 2709 Brooklane. The Larsons left Holland Thursday for Dearborn and visited Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Vollmer and they also went to see his sister, Mrs. Margaret Kromie at Henry Ford Hospital, returning home Friday.

Miss Cheryl Smock of Michigan State U. and guest John Sullivan of Grosse Pointe visited her parents weekend before last, the Don Smocks, coming to attend the Gibson-Lauman wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Johnson of Shangri-La on the mainstream had as their weekend guests their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Johnson and five children of Southfield. One of the five, Eric, discovered en route that he had a broken leg which he had acquired previously, and ended up with a cast on it.

Be sure to take your identification card with you when you go to buy food coupons, which will be purchased at the County Department of Social Services located in the municipal building.

And take good care of your identification card. If you do happen to lose it, report its loss at once to the local welfare office. You will be given another card without delay.

Your coupons will be issued to you in books containing coupons worth 50¢ and $2. Orange coupons are worth 50¢ — blue coupons $2.

Food Stamp Program In County

regular authorized retail stores for any U. S. produced food.

The amount of food coupons you are required to purchase, incidentally, has been calculated so that you will have some cash left to buy non-food items that cannot be bought with food stamps.

Program Same For Assistance and Non-Assistance Families

So far, we've been describing the way non-assistance families can get into the food stamp plan in Crawford County. The program works the same way for families on public or general assistance, except that they are automatically eligible and, of course, already have proof of residence and resources established.

Households receiving aid under such programs as old age, aid to blind, aid to disabled, aid to dependent children and general assistance are eligible for the Food Stamp Program, and are urged to talk over the plan with their caseworkers.

Using Food Stamp Coupons
If you are approved by the local welfare office to participate in the Food Stamp Program, you will be given an identification card. This card will show how many coupons you are required to purchase and how many free coupons you will receive. Do not expect other families to pay the same amount as you do. The charge each family pays, and the total amount of coupons it will receive in return, are based on each family's size and income.

Be sure to take your identification card with you when you go to buy food coupons, which will be purchased at the County Department of Social Services located in the municipal building.

And take good care of your identification card. If you do happen to lose it, report its loss at once to the local welfare office. You will be given another card without delay.

Your coupons will be issued to you in books containing coupons worth 50¢ and $2. Orange coupons are worth 50¢ — blue coupons $2.

The different colors make it easy to tell the coupons apart.

The back of the books must be signed before you purchase foods. And the signature on the book must agree with the signature on your identification card. This will show that you have a right to have and use the coupons.

If you are in doubt whether a grocer accepts coupons, simply ask him. If he does, you will be able to purchase food with the coupons in the same way you purchase for cash.

Do not tear any $2 coupons from the books until you are paying for the food you buy. No change will be given in cash for food coupons. You may pay amounts of less than 50¢ in cash, or the retailer may give you a credit slip for the change coming to you.

As to the things you can buy with your food coupons, remember that the Food Stamp Program is a food assistance program intended to safeguard your health through better nutrition and to increase the flow of foods from American farms. It is not intended to replace or reduce the assistance you receive from the welfare office, if you are receiving any grant.

Consequently, there are some things in the retail store that you cannot buy with the coupons. You cannot buy any non-food items, such as paper products, soap, cigarettes, mops, brooms. Neither can you use the coupons for bottle deposits, or to pay back bills.

Do not ask your grocer to sell you any non-food items. It is against the rules for you to buy such items with coupons, and it is against the rules for the retailer to sell you any such items. You will be removed from the program if you violate the rules, and the grocer will also be disqualified from further program participation.

And treat your coupons like dollars, for that is what they are. Keep them in a safe place and spend them with care.

To save time at the grocer's check-out counter, sort out those items which you cannot purchase with food coupons.
